

7.5 Work Notification

7.5.1 Work Notification (England and Wales)

OFTEC Registered Technicians completing any commissioning work within England and Wales ARE required to notify their work.

Details on how to notify your work can be found in the OFTEC procedures section in OFTEC Technical Book 3.

7.5.2 Work Notification (Jersey)

OFTEC Registered Technicians completing any commissioning work within Jersey ARE required to notify their work. From 1st July 2007 OFTEC Registered Technicians can notify through the OFTEC Work Notification Scheme.

Details on how to notify your work can be found in the OFTEC procedures section in OFTEC Technical Book 3.

7.5.3 Work Notification (Scotland)

Not applicable at time of print

7.5.4 Work Notification (Northern Ireland)

Changes to the Building Regulations mean that from 30th November 2006, Local Authority Building Control must be notified of any oil firing storage, installation and commissioning works (including replacement works) undertaken. Local Authority Building Control should be contacted before commencement of works for either a Building Notice or full building regulations approval.

7.5.5 Work Notification (Republic of Ireland)

Not applicable at time of print

7.5.6 Work Notification (Guernsey)

OFTEC Registered Technicians completing any commissioning work within Guernsey ARE required to notify their work.

Details on how to notify your work can be found in the OFTEC procedures section in OFTEC Technical Book 3.

7.5.7 Work Notification (Isle of Man)

From 1st July 2007, OFTEC Registered Technicians completing any commissioning work within the Isle of Man ARE required to notify their work.

Details on how to notify your work can be found in the OFTEC procedures section in OFTEC Technical Book 3.

